

Ensure Sensitive Data Security

Financial services organizations operate in one of the most highly regulated and risk-sensitive industries. With growing ransomware threats, strict compliance standards, and high-value data, such as credit card numbers and account details, ensuring data security, integrity, and availability is critical.

At Assured Data Protection, we help financial services organizations safeguard sensitive data, meet regulatory requirements, and recover swiftly from disasters and cyberattacks. We act as an extension of your IT department, providing around the clock support from backup and disaster recovery (DR) experts to ensure resilience, compliance, and business continuity when you need it most.

The Pain Points Assured Solves

Ransomware Threats

Ransomware cripples financial systems and exposes sensitive data. Our solutions mitigate these threats, with fast recovery while reducing costs.

Regulatory Compliance

Financial organizations must meet strict standards, such as PCI DSS. Our solutions track sensitive data storage and provide reports for compliance.

Limited IT Resources

Many mid-sized financial firms lack internal resources. We act as an extension of your IT team, ready to take over data recovery in the event of a disaster or cyberattack.

The Assured Solution
